THE RIGHTS OF MAN.

Mansur's Speech on the Idaho Admission Bill.

That is Being Attacked To-day, but To-morrow it will be the Catholics'-The Committee of One Hundred.

WASHINGTON, April 2 .- [Special telegram to THE HERALD. |-The debate on the Idaho bill to-day had the effect of filling the galleries with crowds of interested spectators who sat patiently through the four hours' debate, occasionally punctuating the remarks of the different speakers dient and loyal Catholic and at the same with hearty bursts of applause according time be a lawful citizen of the United as the latter's sentiments found a corresponding ocho in their own hearts.

In the discussion this afternoon the Democrats bore off the honors. The Republicans put forward none of their firstclass talent, and the affirmative side of the No ballot for the man who takes say if such a change is made the Republiquestion was argued by such second- his politics from the Vatican.' This is a can party will never carry an election in Dorsey, of Nebraska; Dubois, of Idaho; and Peters, of Kansas. The Democrats on the other hand were such brilliant orators as Mansur, of attitude of the Catholic authorities towards Missouri, Chipman, of Michigan, and Smith of Arizona. No better evidence of the relative interest felt in the debate could be seen than in the rapid thinning out of the galleries while the Republicans were speaking, and the speediness with which they filled up again when these giants of debate, Mansur and Chipman, of citizenship and of office amounts to nothtook the floor.

Mr. Mansur spoke for an hour. He began by saying that while he had no sympathy, nor did he believe that any person on that side of the House had any sympathy, with the institution of bigamy or of polygamy, yet "we find in this bill there is a mode of striking at these of our doctrines and tenets of liberty as of our doctrines and tenets of liberty as eigled that the law of one of our states discontinued to the principles of the Republican party as enunciated in the Chicago platform, and continue: "We compared the liquor traffic as one which to be disregarded. We do not hesitate to say as a measure for the nation's self-protection, that no man who confesses allegiance to the principles of the Republican party as enunciated in the Chicago platform, and continue: "We recognize the liquor traffic as one which to object of such regulation stould be to minimize intemperance and mitigate its evils. Mr. Mansur then sketched at some length the injustice done to the Mormons in Idaho in the pending bill. It is stated that the reason the Mormons are to be disfranchised is because they vote the Democratic ticket. Continuing, he said: "Just pass across the tee of 100 citizens of Boston. I think I can oming territory, which you admitted as a state the other day, and while there are not so many Mormons there as in Idaho, yet they are nearly all Republicans, and because of the well-understood fact that every Mormon there votes the Republican ticket you let them vote, and not merely that, but you provided the other against the Catholic because he is a Catholic that their wives should have the right to vote, thus giving to every Mormon and wife in Wyoming two votes while in Idaho you deny the right to

Mr. Mansur next quoted Judge Carlton, of the Utah commission; Dr. Miller the editor of the Omaha Heroid; Representative Struble, of Iowa; Bayard Taylor, Chief Justice Waite and others, to show the thrift, industry and general morality of the Mormon people. He then proceeded to ask the questions, "Why on account of the few men who are engaged in the practice of bigamy or polygamy, whether the number be one but the constitution closed to the accused polygamy, whether the number be one hundred and twenty-five, as Mr. Wilson estimates in the whole territory of Idaho, or whether it should be greater, should we insert the penalty of disfranchisement penalty of disfranchisement over until to morrow. Mr. Mansur then referred to the recent creation in the city of Boston of the "Committee of One Hundred." DES MOINES, Ia., April 2.-The anti-prohibition movement within the Republican party culminated in a state conference to day, 196 delegates being present, representing several thousand Republicans. Chairman Collins, of Keokuk, said he had been a life-long prohibitionist, and done all in his power to enforce the law in his city, but had failed. Other speeches were in a similar vein. Ex-Governor Kirkwood sent a letter in which, among other things he said: "Personally, I favor local option Iowa again. That looks to me very much like bulldozing, and the Republicans never took kindly to that mode of argument. This some leading citizens are acoused over the attitude of the Catholic authorities towards the public schools."

Mr. Mansur quoted at length from the pamphlet, one of the paragraphs being as the future."

Hon. O. B. Cummins, of Des Moines, presented the report of the committee on resolutions, which was received with great enthusiasm. The resolutions declare unswerving allegiance to the principles of the sires, is not adapted either to suppressing franchising Mormons is constitutional, on the theory that the man who takes the oath the Mormons are required to take cannot have the right to determine for themselves be a good citizen. Why should not this principle be applied to those who confess allegiance to the papal heirarchy!"

Continuing, the speaker said: "This is the address now being issued by a committee of 100 citizens of Boston. I think I can fairly say to the Catholics that if the Mormons are stricken down, if this bill is to be carried into effect in this way, thus emboldening the dominant majority, it will members agree. A large number of the members agree. A large number of the Republicans of Iowa are, and always have Republicans of lows are, and always have been opposed to general prohibition, and if the Republican party adheres to the present position upon this question, it is manifest that by such adherence it tends to exclude from membership all those who believe the policy fatal to the best interest of the state. Inasmuch as members are not agreed upon the subject, there is obviously but one course which the party can honorably pursue, and it is to rigorously exclude from the party platforms every reference to it, leaving each Republican member of the legislature full liberty to act with respect to it as his judg ment may direct. DES MOINES, April 2.-The prohibition question came up in the lower house of the legislature this afternoon. The Democrati capens license bill was considered. Rich man, Democrat, said in spite of the stringency of the laws it was plainly to be seen Mormon question by saying the issue was fairly joined here: Would Congress sustain this treasonable and lascivious institution, or would it hold up the hands of the brave pioneers who had gone to Idaho, who on the proposition had been been that in some local cities the prohibitory as was openly violated, while in others it was observed. The Democrats wanted to remedy this condition of affairs, and in localities where prohibition is unpopular they wanted the liquor traffic regulated. Accordingly, they had prepared a bill to fit the whole case, a bill that would give localities that wanted pro-hibition a chance to do so. It provided for by popular vote. Licenses will be granted only by the district court, and then only to remonstrance was considered sufficient; a license would be refused, the license fee is fixed at a minimum of $500 and that amount is to go to the county in every case, while the municipality could exact as much more as it saw fit; and one obtaining a license had to file a $5,000 bond for the full observance of the laws. for the full observance of the laws; persons violating the law could be punished by fine violating the law could be punished by fine and imprisonment, and anyone convicted twice should forfelt all right to obtain a license again; druggists could keep and properly use liquors under permits. Any person not holding a license and convicted of selling liquor could be punished by a fine of not less than $100. After a vigorous debate of four hours the matter went over.

The latter said he couldn't give a decided answer at the time, as the matter almost wholly rested with the Olympic club is San Francisco. He promised, hewever, to give an answer by Wednesday. Corbett was seen last night and said he would be glad to put on the gloves with the champion, provided his club gave him permis sion. It would not be proper, he said, to sion. It would not be proper, he said, te enter into an agreement to show in public with any one without consulting the directors. Though Corbett, as he says, came east to see the country and not to fight. He considers the offer made by Sullivan's representatives a very good one. He wired his club last night and expects an answer early to day. Corbett heavy worked Wysterious Disappearance of a Young remissing to return the following week rado Springs six weeks ago to visit friends, promising to return the following week, and carried but little extra clothing. It has been learned that she failed to find her Denver friends, and now her relatives are trying to find her. She is described as bright and vivacious, aged eighteen, dark hair and eyes, and is petite and attractive. Foul play is feared.

At Platero mining camp, in the western portion of San Luispark, on Sunday night, Joe Devine fatally shothis partner, Charles Wallace. Devine was of a quarrelsome disposition, and Wallace recently made his will, fearing trouble with him. Devine formerly kept a road house near Aspen, and skipped his house near Aspen, and skipped his bond there for holding up six men. The coroner's jury say his last murder was premeditated and he has been placed in Conejos jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Touch to understand it, for gate receipts, 65 per cent to the winner, the remaining to the loser. I will be declared winner if I stay through four rounds. I don't suppose the police will allow us to use gloves smaller than three ounces though it is immaterial to me what size is used. The match must take place within three weeks as I am to be head to Olyan.

BUTTE, Mont., April 2.—[Special telegram to The Herald.]—T. J. Davis to-day applied for letters of administration on the $7,000,000 estate of A. J. Davis who died a lifornian is the coming shape of the same stock as George Robinson, who faced Sullivan in the Mechanics' pavilion in 'Frisco a few years ago. Besides, Corpett thinks a great deal of Mike Donovan's $7,000,000 estate of A. J. Corbett, Like Barkis, is Willing.

NEW YORK, April 2 .- Jim Corbett, or the California wonder, as he has been styled ince he defeated Kilrain, when spoken to about a contest with J. L. Suilivan, said: about a cortest with J. L. Suilivan, said:
"I am willing to meet Sullivan in any business office he may be pleased to name to arrange terms for a four-round contest with gloves within two weeks. This is the only stipulation I must insist upon. My leave of absence has nearly expired and it makes imperative a return to my duties at the Olympic Athletic club. If Mr. Sullivan will array to the time stipula-Mr. Sullivan will agree to the time stipula tion I feel sure a match can be arranged."

Corbett spoke throughout the interview with modesty, in fact, it was a difficult matter to get him to say a word about a contest for fear, as he said, people would think him boastful. A Mill Near St. Paul.

Players' National Ball League. New York, April 2.-The conference of the directors of the Players' National Ball league to-day was barmonious. Those delegates who had in mind an alteration of the entire schedule evidently saw no chance to carry their point and the subject was not broached. An important change was made by amending the opening dates so that the season of both the National and Players' leagues shall open the same day, April 18. This change will have the effect of making the fight more aggressive and silence the National league people who claimed the Players were afraid to clash with them in dates.
